TO THE VNKNOWNE PATRON.

THis worke I did intend to Mercury,
Before his wings were ſicke, and he could fly:
But now the Gods incenſed, all together
Haue layd diſeaſes vpon euery feather:
(Alas) he cannot raiſe himſelfe nor carry
His plumes, as does the reſt of all the Ayrie:
But is retired to ſome ſhady Groue,
To hide him from the great incenſed Ioue.
And where to find my Patron to deliuer
This little worke of mine; I know not, neither
If he were found (and no diſcretion loſt)
This title might offend him, or me moſt.
Now all ye Gods beare witneſſe, I intend
Onely to ſhew a boun den thankefull mind

Vnto this Mercurie, by whose quicke fire
My Muse being lately wounded did respire.
And whether sinne of these two be the lesse:
A feare in Conscience, or vnthankfulnesse,)
Iudge Heauens; And vouchsafe me onely this,
What's well intended be not tooke amisse.
And now goe on my Booke, and seeke about,
Till thou hast found this vnknown Patron out:
And tell him thou cam'st from an vnknowne friend,
Whose Loue's a Circle, round, without an end.

Ante leues ergo, &c.

To the Reader.

IF may be obiected vnto me, that the collation of these things, is not all made vp and digested into this fabrique of mine owne materials and structure, and I doe ingenuously confesse it: Seeing the Foure Treasuries were collected by Mr. Agard, his priuate notes, a man very industrious and painfull in that kind; and one, who had continual recourse vnto the mast, & custody of many of the rest of the same: And the latter Callender of the Records of the Tower, came to my hands from an Author vnknowne, euen as the Printer was drawing the last sheet of the precedent worke from the Presse, I was content to giue it wharfage, and to let it be layd on shore with the rest, but very vnwillingly; because, I had no conuenient roome left where to dispose it, without blaming of my Methode, in that it was not layd in his proper place, with the rest that is vnder the Title of the Tower, in the first Station: whereof I hope an equall censure, ever resting

Sub rostro Cyconiè.

THE CHAN-CERIE.

THE TOWER.

THe Tower followes by due course, being the Repositorie of the Chappell of the Rolls of the Chancerie, to receiue their older Records, which are more ancient then primo of Richard the third. All which, the Master of the Rolles heretofore hath sent ouer to the Tower. And keepes in the Chappell, onely those that are of more Recencie.

So it plainely appeareth; that the Tower hath the like Records, as the Chancerie Chappell.

Here is one Kalender called the Booke of Names, made by way of Alphabet, containing the Names of all men whose Offices or Inquisitions, taken after their deaths, are there to be found. In which you may see what Lands any such dyed seised of, with the tenure of the same; and in many of them finde, the last Wills and Testaments of such persons, recyted in the same, here, as in the Chappell of the Rolles, which Wils sometimes are not to be found elsewhere.

Item, here are diuers Kalenders of Eschetors bundles (viz.) one of the time of Henry the third.

Another of Edward the first.

Another of Edward the second.

Another of Edward the third.

Another of Richard the second.

Another of Henry the fourth, and Henry the fifth.

And

And another of Edward the fourth.

Item, here is one booke called the booke of Heyres, of Henry the thirds time, containing the names of such persons, as had Offices found at that time, declaring who were their Heyres, and their age; and sometimes mentioning their Wiues, with the Countyes wherein they had any Lands.

Item, the like seuerall bookes are seuerally and respectiuely here made vp, of the times of Edward the first, Edward the second, Edward the third, Richard the second, Henry the fourth, and Henry the fifth.

Item, heere is one little Kalender by way of Alphabet, containing such Mannors and Lands, as are found in any the aforesaid Offices or Inquisitions, in the County of Essex, but not perfect.

Item, the like booke of the County of Lincolne. And the like of the County ty of Bedford. The like of Berkes. The like of Buckingham. And one great booke, the like, for the Counties of Somerset, Dorset, Devon, and Cornewall. But not by way of Alphabet.

Item, heere is a Kalender and Collection out of the old Rolles, called Charta antiquam, without date.

Item, a like Kalender of the Rolles of King Iohn: a like of Henry the third, from the first till the eleuenth of his Raigne: a Kalender and Collection of all Graunts of Inheritance, granted by any of our Kings before Richard the third, and so ancient as there are any Records here; and this with the like, was transmitted hither out of the Chancerie.

Item, here be certaine Rolles of Edward the first, for his whole raigne.

Item, two bookes or Kalenders of Free Warrens, Markets, Fayres, Leets, and other Liberties; gathered out of the the Charter Roll, of the time of Edward the first, and during his whole Raigne.

Item, an old Kalender of Charters of Corporations, and other Liberties granted of Cities, Boroughes, Abbyes, Colledges, and Cathedrall Churches, during the whole Raigne of Edward the first.

Item, a Kalender or Collection of the Parliament Rolles of Attayndors, Restitutions, Resumptions: from the twenty ninth of Henry the third, till the end of his raigne.

Item, certaine paper Rolles for confirmations of Charters, and Liberties of Colledges, Corporations, and religious Houses. And for Licences of Lands to be giuen in Mortmaine, from the first of Edward the first, till the last of Edward the fourth, done by way of Alphabet.

Item, one booke of Confirmations of Charters, of Liberties of Colledges, Corporations, and religious Houſes; and for Licenſes of Lands to bee giuen in Mortmaine (as aforeſaid;) collected out of the Patent and cloſe Rolles of all the time of Edward the ſecond: except two or three of the laſt yeares.

Item, certaine ſmall bundles of looſe Papers of like nature, by way of Alphabet, of ſundry Kings times, confuſedly layd together

Item, a collection of the Patent Rolles, gathered of all Preſentations, made by the King to any Church Prebendarie, or Chappell; as well, in the right of the Crowne, as in the right of any other, (the ſame beeing for that time in the hands of the King) from primo of Edward the firſt, till the midſt of the raigne of Edward the third.

Here be two bookes, the one, of the Taxation of all the Spirituall Liuings in England: The other of the Temporalties,

Item,

Item, the ancient Perambulations of the Forrests.

Some Parliament busines &c.

Some Forreigne busines (as Treaties) &c.

The Fees heere.

The Fees heere are the like in all things as in Chancerie: Saue onely that the Search of any thing heere is tenne Shillings.

THE EXCHEQVER

THe chiefe Records of the Exchequer, are in the custody of the Lord Treasurer; and the two Chamberlaines there. And of the two Remembrancers, viz. The Kings Remembrancer, and the Lord Treasurers Remembrancer.

The Records in the Kings Treasuries at Westminster, being foure, of which the Lord Treasurer and the Chamberlaines

berlaines haue the cuſtody, may be deuided thus, (viz.)

Records
- 1. Forreigne, as Leagues, or Treaties, betweene Prince and Prince, or States of ſundry Nations.
- 2. Domeſticall, and they are of foure ſorts, Viz.
  - 1. Such as concerne matters of Eſtate, and the Crowne onely.
  - 2. Pleading betwixt the King and Subiect for preſeruing of the Kings Prerogatiue.
  - 3. Pleadings betweene Subject and Subject.
  - 4. Accompts of the King, and concerning ſome of his Lands, and ſome of the Subiects alſo.

All which Records and Monuments, are layd vp for their better preseruation, in foure seuerall Treasuries: except some few, kept in priuate Officers hands, whereof mention shall bee hereafter made; vnder three seuerall Keyes, kept by three sundry Officers, distinct the one key from the other. And vpon each doore three lockes, all which foure Treasuries and their places, with their Records in them contained, I shall hereafter set forth and declare.

Treasuries.

The foure Treasuries their Places.

1. The first, in the Court of Receipt.
2. The second, in the New Pallace of Westminster.
3. The third, in the late dissolued Abbey of Westminster, in the old Chapiter House.
4. The fourth, in the Cloyster of the sayd Abbey:

And so much for their places.

For your better direction, I shall deliuer, what Records are to bee found in euery of these Treasuries, respectiuely.

But by the way, and before I begin to

to ſhew what Records are in euery Treaſury; it is fit I ſhould ſhew you, what particular Records, vſe to remaine in the hands of priuate Officers, on the Receipt ſide.

The firſt, with the Remembrancer of the Receipt; which is now the Office of Sir ROBERT PYE, who hath the keeping of all Priuy Seales. And Inrollment of Patents, and Warrants, for the Iſſuing of Treaſure. And the accompts thereof from the Tellers, whereof, hee hath a great number in Bags and Preſſes, in an Office cloſe by the Court of Receipt. And in another Office which he hath below, neare his houſe.

The next, is the Clarke of the Pelles; now, Sir EDVVARD WARDORS Office, who keepeth the two Pelles, called Redditus, and Introitus, of both ſorts; whereof hee hath a particular Office, in a roome neare to the Court of Receipt, which records are from EDVVARD the first, till this present.

And now to the foure Treasuries.

The first is, the Treasurie of the Court of Receipt. In which are,

Two of the ancientest Bookes of Records in this Kingdome: made in WILLIAM the Conquerours time, called Doomes-day.

The one Booke in Quarto, containing the Description or Survey of Essex, Norfolke, and Suffolke.

The other in Folio, being the like, for all the Shires in England, from Cornwall, to the Riuer of Tyne.

Here is a Booke, called the blacke Booke, made in HENRY the seconds time, De necessarijs Scarij observandis: And in the same, are the Oathes and Admittances of Officers inrolled, and other Notes of some consequence.

Item, heere is a Patent Roll of EDVVARD the seconds time.

Item, a booke in Parchment of the Perambulation of all the Kings Forrests beyond Trent. And the Iustice-Seate held in them, by the Deputyes of the Lord Cromwell: Iustice there made in the time of HENRY the eight.

Item, a Pag of canvasse of speciall Records, abbreuiated into a sheet of Paper being in the Bag:

Item, the ancient Keyes of the Treasurie of the Leagues, in the Cloyster of Westminster Abbey in a Chest.

Item, sundry Bags of Foyles of Sheriffes, and Bayliffes tallyes, which by default of Order in the Pype Office, were neuer joyned

Item, sundry Books of Remembrances, and Abbreuiations of Records.

Item, the Seale of the Court of Receipt in siluer, very ancient, with the Kings Kings face in it, and theſe words following about it, Sigillum Officij Receipt. Succeſſ. Regis Angliæ.

There is a little Roome adjoyning to the ſame Courts, wherein are three Cheſts, In which are Records placed, viz.

THe firſt Cheſt next to the Doore, containeth Pleadings of Quo Warranto coram Iuſticiarijs itinerantibus, and Placita Coronæ, and Placita de Iur. & Aſſ. in and through the moſt part of the Shires of England, in King EDWARD the firſts time. Onely ſome two ſhires put into a Bag, and ſome one ſhire, for the more eaſie finding and Preſeruation thereof.

The next Chest beyond that, hath three Diuisions in it.

THe first diuision being on the right hand, hath in it a very faire Booke in Parchment in Folio, containing an abbreuiation of the two former spoken Bookes of Doomes-day verbatim, with that Booke in the Exchequer, called Doomes-day, in the custody of the Kings Remembrancer there.

Item, another large booke in Parchment, contayning the Inrollment of Popes Bulles, Deeds of Lands, conueyed to the Prince by sundry Persons; Some Leagues with Princes, especially of Wales, &c. The Inrollment of the Statutes of Winchester, and Gloucester, &c.

Two great Bags of Surucy of sundry discouered Abbeyes by Cardinall Woolsey; and such like.

Item,

Item, a Bag of ſundry Charters, granted to diuers for Lands and Liberties in England; the contents thereof may be found in a blacke booke in Parchment, abbreuiated and intituled, Chart. tangen. diuerſas Libertat. de diverſis Monaſteriÿs, & alÿs.

Item, a great bag of Rolles of Aſſizes, in Henry the third, Edward the firſt, Edward the third, and Henry the fourth times, all abbreuiated into Bookes, very ready to bee found by the number Roll.

Item, a booke of the Treaſurer and Chamberlaines Deputies, deliueraunces of Records, and Iewels, and Receipt of Leagues, and deliuery of them out, from Edward the thirds time, vntill Henry the eighths time; In which, are many good Notes worthy of obſeruation.

Item, an old Catalogue of Leagues, betwixt Prince and Prince, and Popes, intituled, Kalendarium seu Repertorium.

Item, a Basket wherein are contained 8. Bulles of Popes of Ratification, of the liberties of England, granted to the Kings, Clergie, and Nobility of England.

Item, a Roll of Lands giuen in Mortmaine, in London, ab Anno 5. EDVVARD 1. vsq; annum 30. of the same King: Pro Camerar. & al. Elemosinam sustentand.

Item, some Chamberlaines counterpels of the times of Philip and Mary, and of Queene ELIZABETHS raigne.

Item, a bag of bookes intituled, bookes of Suruey and other, de quibus quære. In which bag especially, is a large booke intituled, Extent. Manery de Bradford.

The middle diuision, hath onely Placita Forrest. which are diuided into three bags, one bag containeth small bags, wherein are mentioned the particular ticular Shires or Forrests : and on the outside are mentioned the shires.

The like is in another bag.

The third bag, contayneth Records of Forrests in diuers shires.

There is also a fourth bag, wherein are contained, Inquisitions in sundry Forrests, but in them you shall find nothing in effect for Euidence ; because they mention specially, De malefactoribus de venac. & de virid.

In the bag of diuers Countyes, is a bag of such Parliament Rolles, as were found in the foure Treasuries, and gathered and collected together, which are abbreuiated into a booke, and they bee very worthy Records, and some of them touch matter of Forrests.

Item, the innovate Roll is there.

The

The third Diviſion containeth,

Placita de quo Warranto Edward. 2. —— London, in a Bag. Ierſey & Garnſey, in a bag. Kent, in a great Roll.

THE REMEMBRANCERS FOLLOVV.

The Remembrancers are two:

Viz. { The Kings, and The Lord Treasurers.

NOw what Records are appropriated to either Remembrancer, concerning the businesses of their Offices respectiuely, appeares by an especiall order made for the purpose, by Sir Richard Lyster Knight, Lord Chiefe Baron of the Exchequer: Dated in Iuly, in the fiue and twentyeth yeare of the raigne of King HENRY the eighth, which remaines with the Kings Remembrancer.

And most of the businesses of the Remembrancers, are taken out of an Originall or Extract, which the Chancerie transmitteth yearely into the Exchequer, to collect and recouer thereout, and thereby, any thing that is reserued or due to the Crowne, whether it be Rent Seruice, Accompt, or whatsoeuer else; whereby any profit may arise to the Crowne, either casually, or certainely. By which originall, growes that great correspondency, which is betweene the Exchequer, and the Chancerie.

Now besides the businesses and Records cords which Sir Richard Lyster assigned and set forth out of the said Originall, as proper to the Kings Remembrancer:

Escheators, Commissioners, Searchers, Stewards, Bayliffes, Farmers, Gaugers, Vnagers, &c.

And so much shall suffice for the two Remembrancers, &c.

It shall not be amisse, that mention be made of the manner how the Deputy Chamberlaines haue demeaned themselues in the exercises of their Offices, being in the Court, and what qualities were needfull for them, in their places.

FIrst, it is needfull for them to haue a reasonable good knowledge, in the Latine and French tongues, for Latine, to vnderstand, reade, and examine the Tailles, which they must doe publikely; Also, to vnderstand the Records, and to know the diuersitie of their natures: For the French, to tell the numbers in examining the Tailles, and especially, to vnderstand the Records, whereof sundry both of State and otherwiſe, are in French, and eſpecially, in Monſtre le Droits, and Treatyes betweene Prince and Prince.

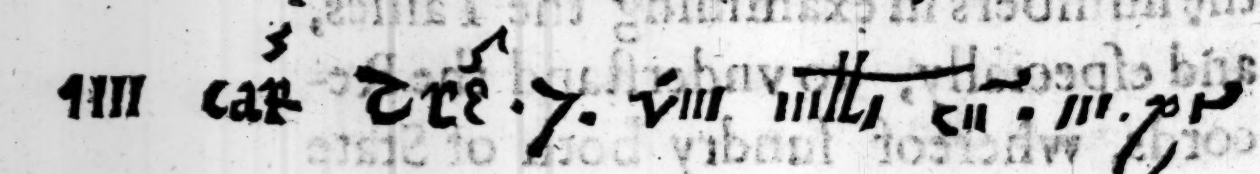
After the Tailles be examined, the charge of the Foyles is onely in the Chamber aynes, to deliuer them ſafe ouer to the other two Deputyes on the Chequer ſide, to joyne the ſame.

In ſearching the Booke of Domeſdei, is to bee avoyded, laying bare hands or moyſture, vpon the writing thereof, and blotting.

In copying of Notes, out of the ſame Booke of Domeſdei, you muſt write it as neare as you can, to the Letter thereof, obſeruing both the great Letters, and the poynts therein, which are prickes with a Pen: thus,



For

For Yorkeſhire, you haue a Kalender onely, which, if you obſerue the manner of it, will maruailouſly ready the Searcher, for thereby you ſhall find a Towne ſooner, and the places wherein the booke doth mention the ſame.

There is a booke of Domeſdei, made by Maſter Arthur Agard, the late Officer there, remaining in the Treaſury, which if you peruſe, it will ready the Searcher much, both for the reading, and for the ſomewhat better vnderſtanding thereof.

There is a booke, abbreuiated of the bag of Parliament Rolles, of EDVVARD the firſts time, which is yet amongſt Placita Foreſte, in the bag intituled; De diuerſis Foreſtis, they are very ſtately Records, Ideo quere.
